Customer Reviews

This book was hard to put down. I feel like I was reading a book for teens, although I'm almost 50, I enjoyed it immensely. I would have given it five stars, but there's quite a few grammar errors and the story line seemed too familiar; lots killing, lots of action... I think a teenage boy would really like this book, although it's quite disturbing. Looking forward to reading more books by Jack Hunt!

A story of teenagers that really acted like Marines to try and save their town. I enjoyed the story as it takes place in Wallace ID which is over the pass from us and my oh my, there sure must be a load of white supremacist hiding in the wood. We pretty much ran them out a while back but it makes for a good bad guy group.

I have loved all of this guys work and it is the same for this one. Different story line..would never have thought of it. Very fast pace...hard to put down!

A different take on the old SHTF tale. I enjoyed it's fast pace. Violent but not too graphic. I will look for others by this author.

I enjoyed this book, might have read it all at once if I could find a place to hide. I'm gonna check out this guy's other stuff, too.

Despite the misogynistic overtones, the storyline kept my attention. I hated the bratty teenage boys, but they did come through in the end. The author needs to overcome his "me man, me save you", and write in some strong female leads next story. For God sakes, Murphy's gf is a cop....come on. Anyway, enjoyed this and can't wait to see how our hero's/survivor's next adventure unfolds.

Hard to describe really, not bad but more "Rambo in Lord of the Flies" Hundreds of neo-Nazis vs a dozen kids and a Navy Seal. Really? If it had been a Marine maybe.....(just kidding) I don't understand the number of praise reviews, to each their own I suppose. Might try another book of Hunt's but not this series.

First I love Lack Hunt books. Such well developed. Characters and storyline. I look forward to many more J. Hunt books. I have informed relatives and friends of this edge of your seat story. Thanks....
