Seize The Dark

Synopsis

Jonathan is a mystic who specializes in killing poltergeists. He is a haunted spirit himself, having lost both parents as he travels around the country, entering haunted houses and killing the evil spirits inside. He is then hired to enter a haunted building, one that has killed many a mystic before him...but inside he finds a ghost that he has never encountered before....a woman, covered in blood, who was killed over thirty years earlier...

Customer Reviews

I have read very few paranormal stories before Seize The Dark. The book tells the story of a man who has the ability to see, hear and communicate with ghost and other paranormal entities. The man Jon has faced many entities in the last five years but this is the strongest. Jon understood that he might be the eighth paranormal investigator to die facing this entity. This is a heartwarming story if you can finish it. I intend to read more books from this author.

Very moving story with a cast of strong characters. It tells vividly the power of hate and of love to conquer.

This was a good book in that it treated the paranormal with greater understanding and less fear than is usual.

Good writing a little to short would make a grate series. I would love to read more of this book

Jon uses his talents to help those who share their homes with the unexplained. But when an elderly lady in Louisiana called him, he didn't know what he was getting into.
