Defiance (The Defending Home Series Book 1)

Synopsis

A month has passed since a deadly virus swept the country killing millions and leaving chaos in its wake. Dale Hardy has managed to weather the storm by hunkering down on his homestead in Arizona. He grows his own crops, generates his own power and draws fresh water from his own deep aquifer. But when a nearby town's water supply dwindles in the searing Arizona heat, Dale's peaceful existence is threatened. The new mayor and sheriff want what he has and they're willing to do whatever it takes to get it. With a crooked local government conspiring against him, Dale will need to stand in defiance or risk losing everything.

Customer Reviews

Damned fine read. Spoiler alert. This one starts Dale Hardy shooting three trespasser in his yard. These men are after his water. Dale lives in Arizona on the family farm his Father left him. Land that has been in their family for over a hundred years. He has chickens for eggs, goats for milk and a large garden for fresh vegetables. He has solar panels and wind power for electricity and a large aquifer on his property. The solar panels and wind power keep the batteries full so the water runs into the house and fills the livestock tanks. Dale knows water will be a major issue for those trying to survive. Arizona is one dry state with loads of desert. He and his daughter Brooke has been doing well since the pandemic that killed millions. Besides twenty one year old daughter Brooke he has Duke, his attack trained German Shepherd. Duke was adopted from the pound and has been proved to be worth his weight in gold. He's one well trained dog. A dog who gives warning long before the trouble arrives. Dale's nephew Colton also lives with them after his mother, Dale's sister, died from the disease. Colton is young and impetuous and Dale knows he will have to control the young man. Many people have come to his gate begging for food and water. Dale has made it clear to Brooke and Colton that nothing is to be given to these people. Once they find out they can get a handout at his place they will return and bring others with them. Dale has no problem killing to defend what's his. Dale has a brother Shane who's married. He and his wife live in the town of Encendido a town that was hit hard by the pandemic. Dale has asked them more than once to come to the farm. They have declined so far thinking that FEMA and the Army will show up.
