Customer Reviews

I would like to thank Llewellyn Worldwide, Ltd. for a free ARC of this book via Netgalley in exchange for an open and honest review. Another great reference book from Llewellyn Worldwide for those wishing to learn more about the sacred â ^Wheel of the yearâ™. This is the second book in the â ^Llewellyn Sabbats essentialsâ™ series Iâ™ve read and, although again strongly focussed on the faith in the northern hemisphere, it still represented the quality of work Iâ™ve come to expect from this series. And, what I liked a lot was that Iâ™ve never really done much for Imbolc, as I focus more on Ostara at the end of September (here in Australia) and I do love how the book not only taught me the importance of this Sabbath, itâ™s inspired me to do more for it come the end of July next year. As with the other book Iâ™ve read in this series, â ^Imbolcâ™ encouraged me to keep doing things â œmy wayâ •. While also teaching me a few new things that I feel will really help lift the darkness of winter and bring a little light back into my home a little earlier. A book not only of knowledge, history and ritualâ | but inspiration and passion too. Would I recommend this book to others? Yes I would. Again, the stronger connection to the northern hemisphere (just like the book â ^Yuleâ ™) means other southern hemisphere folk may draw more inspiration than actual ritual practices from the bookâ | but it is still a worthy reference book and guide for those wanting to know â ^what itâ ™s all aboutâ ™ and reconnect to the cycles of our seasons and our glorious Mother Nature. It also gives us a broader look at the world and our Pagan faiths within it. Would I buy this book for myself? As with â ^Yuleâ ™â | I might.
