Jude Justice came home to head the homicide division of their town's police force. Jake Justice, the younger brother is the Commander and has brought Skylar (Sky) Hughes with him from Washington D.C. Sky is an intelligence analyst and very intelligent. She can look at situations and analyze, remember everything, and not write a word down. Unfortunately her father has put her down her whole life and made her dress like a geek. She wears coke bottle glasses, baggy shirts, and baggy pants. She tries everything she can to play down her figure and beauty. Jude is a cynical SOB that thinks women are only good for sex. He has his women that he goes out with for fun. Unfortunately Jude first meets Sky at a gruesome murder scene in their small town. The next day when they are in the conference room discussing the murders, he does everything he can to embarrass Sky like calling her Specs and Squirt. Jude's brother Jake, tells him to let up as he will see what an asset her brain is to the team. Sky is good friends with Jake's girlfriend Hailey and lives with her. This is the first time in her life that she has had friends and is free to do what she wants. Her obnoxious father has tried to control her all his life and make her a puppet. She has a tendency to be very shy and reserved. She does not have much confidence in herself. Sky and

Jude are on the opposite ends of the spectrum. Sometimes that is what attracts people to each other. The two have to work together to solve multiple murders that are happening in the city. They both get to see another side of each other. You will need to read the book to see what happens. I loved the book. Ms. Lee know how to put the right amount of mystery and angst into a book.
