Customer Reviews

First and foremost I would like to thank Bookouture/Netgalley for giving me the opportunity to read this book in exchange for an honest review. I thought I would do my review with a slight twist (keep reading and you will see what I mean) â™ in keeping with the spirit/plot of this book â™ so bear with me. I really enjoyed this book by Caroline Mitchell. I read the first book in the series: Donâ™t Turn Around and felt that the mash up of police procedural/thriller/crime and the paranormal was an interesting mix. A cocktail of every thing I enjoy stirred and shaken so I was left with an interesting concoction of writing to read. Well for me, Time To Die was much better! It had the elements of supernatural so cleverly woven within the pages that you do not even have to suspend belief, stretch your imagination or think beyond the ordinary to the extraordinary as it just seems believableâ or maybe I have just been âœMitchell-edâ • â “my new term for this authorâ™s way of captivating my interest and drawing me in! We meet the usual suspects again â “DC Jennifer Knight, DC Will Dunston, DI Ethan Cole and some newbies: DS Claire Gilmour and Zoe (to name a few) but this time they are working with Operation Moonlight, a special branch within their police teamâ “Haven CID. I enjoyed the way we learned more about Jennifer Knight in this bookâ “no spoilers I promiseâ “ and I was really pleased to see that she develops a love interest in this book â “I know, I know â ” I think Marcie Steele has left a little âœlove dustâ • on me (gag!!) If I turn soft I am totally blaming Bookouture! Of course I cannot forget âœThe Ravenâ • â “ the serial killer that Jennifer Knight must track down and bring to justice. What a great character!
